

State Employee Training

Offered by Secretary of State Robin Carnahan and the Missouri State Library

Expand your job skills with a library training session. They are quick and easy, and will provide you with skills you can put to immediate use.

What's not to love?

Session Schedule

- April 19th, 10:00-11:30

Introduction to Library Resources

By popular demand, a session to introduce to state employees all the resources available from the Missouri State Library. Learn how you can receive valuable work information without leaving your office!

- May 17th, 10:00-11:30

Statistics and Demographics

Wondering how you can navigate the census web pages to find the statistics you need? This session will show you how.

- June 21st, 10:00-11:30

Business Information

Are you interested in finding company and industry information? This session will highlight business databases and online resources.

- Location: Truman Building, Rm. 280
- Instructor: Cindy Bassett, Reference Librarian, Missouri State Library
- Cost: Free
- Enroll: call 573-751-3615 or e-mail cindy.bassett@sos.mo.gov; class size limited to 15